

INDIAN 101 BINGO

Instructions:

- < The object is to get a BINGO by finding workshop participants who can affirmatively answer questions, and write their initials in the appropriate boxes to complete a straight line (vertical, horizontal, or diagonal). Ask participants to initial the box with the question to which they know the answer.
- < Put your name in the center square.
- < A participant can initial only one box on your sheet.

1. Knows the population of Native Americans in the U.S.	2. Knows what Cahokia is	3. Knows the origin of the word "caucus"	4. Can name at least 3 foods 1 st domesticated in the Americas	5. Knows what Terra Preta is
6. Knows what a stomp dance is	7. Knows the Lakota word for buffalo or American Bison	8. Has ever been to a Potlach	9. Knows where in the US Constitution Indian tribes are mentioned	10. Knows who Tecumseh and Popé were
11. Knows why Andrew Jackson is not NA's favorite President	12. Knows what tribe participated in the Long Walk	FREE	14. Knows how many reservations there are in Oklahoma	15. Knows what a Cacique is
16. Knows how many federally recognized tribes are in the U.S.	17. Knows the name of at least one tribe in Virginia	18. Knows the % of Indian population in urban areas	19. Has read a book by Vine Deloria, Jr.	20. Knows what tribe had the first tribal college
21. Knows what tribe had the first gaming enterprise	22. Knows the 2nd largest employer in the state of Mississippi	23. Knows which is the largest Indian Tribe in U.S.	24. Knows how many states have Indian names	25. Knows which countries did not sign the UNDRIP

* Cultural Bingo was borrowed from Kirke Kickingbird (Kiowa), Institute for the Development of Indian Law (9/16)